

Simplify your role as executor

The death of a loved one brings not only grief, but an overwhelming amount of paperwork to complete. It can be hard to know what to do or to find the energy to do it. That's where Estate at Ease™, offered through Canada Life, can help. At Estate at Ease, we quickly and accurately prepare forms and documents, making the process easier for you.

Let us carry some of the load

- In a 30-minute phone call with you, our associates identify documents that pertain to the estate, saving time.
- Our services include identity theft protection to help safeguard your loved one's estate against identity fraud.
- By preparing the forms and documents for you, we can help you finalize your loved one's estate faster while helping to maximize your corporate, government and other benefits.
- Settling someone's affairs can be a long process. Our compassionate associates will provide ongoing personalized support for a full year.

Helping you in four steps

Let Estate at Ease step in to help

We use a comprehensive evaluation process to assess hundreds of items, including:

- Government letters, applications and notifications
- Memberships and licences
- Pensions, benefits and life insurance policies
- Loyalty programs and subscriptions
- Dormant bank accounts
- Charities
- Health services
- Internet, phone and cable
- Utilities
- Property taxes

You'll receive a full year of Estate at Ease estate documentation and identity theft protection service for a flat fee of $525 (plus tax)* regardless of the number of documents, letters or phone calls.

Testimonials

"I greatly appreciate all the help that was provided . . . Would and have highly recommended your services to friends. Very helpful at a difficult time."

– M.M., Teeswater, Ontario

"All of the paperwork was extremely well organized, complete and my associate was amazing in helping me find the information required. This is an amazing service for those in the grieving process."

– A.S.M., Fredericton, New Brunswick

". . . I wasn't sure what to expect. The service I received surpassed my expectations! I was engaged by my agent in a very reassuring way and was confident at the outset that all my requirements would be thoroughly dealt with.

"My agent was compassionate and most sensitive, which at the time was invaluable. I appreciate how professional the experience was. Thank you!"

– M.S., North Vancouver, British Columbia

Let us help you through one of life's most difficult times. Call 1-866-904-0092 or email info@estateat ease.ca.

Estate at Ease

Estate at Ease does not provide legal, accounting or insurance services and complies with the privacy laws of Canada.

*$525 price is current as of the date this piece was created, the amount is subject to change.